

I am outraged that Sinclair Broadcasting is using its corporate muscle to pervert our public airwaves to smear the campaign of John Kerry.

The airwaves belong to us, not corporate giants, and broadcasters have both a legal and a moral obligation to present news which is fair and factual. Using our airwaves in a blatant strong-arm effort to subvert democracy, as Sinclair is blatantly doing here, is a horrific development in our open society.

Too few enormous businesses own too many of our media outlets. The FCC should strengthen the rules to prevent this anti-competitive domination of the free market of ideas. Further, Sinclair's station licenses should all be put on a "do not renew" list.
Thank you.
